

NARR, HENRY Charles

Name NARR, HENRY
Rank PVT Company G Unit 101 IL US INF

Personal Characteristics

Residence WAVERLY, MORGAN CO, IL Age 29 Height 5' 6 3/4 Hair DARK
Eyes BLUE Complexion LIGHT Marital Status MARRIED Occupation WAGON MAKER
Nativity SAXONY

Service Record

Joined When AUG 9, 1862 Joined Where WAVERLY, IL
Joined By Whom ROBERT MCKEE Period 3 YRS
Muster In SEP 2, 1862 Muster In Where JACKSONVILLE, IL
Muster In By Whom N/A Muster Out N/A
Muster Out Where N/A Muster Out By Whom N/A
Remarks DISCHARGED MAY 13, 1865 AT MOUND CITY ILL FOR DISABILITY

He is listed on the Jacksonville Civil War monument and the 1872 Morgan Co. History.

From the Illinois Marriage database:

NARR, HENRY JONES, MARY 1857-01-25 B/ 117 3660 MORGAN

He applied for pension 21 Feb 1907

He is buried in East Cemetery, Waverly, Morgan Co., IL His wife and children are also buried there.

NARR, HENRY

Aged War Veteran Called By Death

Henry Narr, Nearly Ninety Years of Age, Died Tuesday Morning at Home of His Son, E. M. Narr

Henry C. Narr was born in Lobenstein, Germany, July 4, 1833, and died at the home of his son, Edward M. Narr, northwest of Waverly, Tuesday, May 29, 1923, after only a brief illness, death being due to a paralytic stroke.

When a young man he left the land of his nativity and came to this land of promise. He arrived in St. Louis, February 24, 1854, at which place he commenced life in America and lived for a few years. He was married to Miss Mary Jane Jones, January 25, 1857. To this union three children were born: Mary Helen and Charles Henry, who died in their infancy, and Edward Major who survives him.

When the Civil War came on, he enlisted as a soldier in Co. G, 101st Illinois Infantry, and served as a good soldier to the end of the war. At its close he came to Waverly, which has been his home most of the years intervening up to the time of his death.

When Waverly Lodge No. 118, A. F. & A. M. was organized, March 2, 1866, Mr. Narr was a charter member and during the more than fifty years since that time he has given it enthusiastic and loyal support. At a celebration not many years back he expressed his appreciation of Masonry in these words, "I have been a member of the Masonic Lodge for fifty years and I have never seen a day that I regretted this membership."

Mr. Narr was a wagon maker by trade, but retired from activity in this calling at the time of his wife's death in 1900. Since then he has lived at the home of his son, E. N. Narr.

He is remembered by his old friends as modest and unobtrusive in manner, but withal a citizen with sterling integrity, truth and honor. His vigor and strength of manhood was of that type that is indispensable in making any community strong.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock, in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. N. Thomas. Two selections, "Abide With Me" and "Lead Kindly Light" were sung by Mrs. Wilson M. Smith. The pall bearers were W. L. Horstman, W. H. Graves, J. C. Deatherage, Edward Wemple, Jesse McClain and Frank Brown. The flowers were cared for by Misses Caroline Lombard, Olive Burnett, Effie Ritter and Mildred Rohrer.