Alexander Whitlock, the son of John and Rebecca Whitlock, was born in Washington county, Tenn., June 10, 1840, and died at the family home here Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock, at the age of 79 years and 16 days.

In 1852 he removed with his parents to Illinois and settled near Waverly, but for the past 35 years he has made his home in Franklin. At an early age he was converted under the ministry of Rev. Wingate Newman and united with the Little York M.E. church, being an active worker in that organization. He removed his membership to Franklin M.E. church after becoming a resident of this place.

At the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted with Co. I, 14th Illinois Infantry, lacking but a few days of being 21 years of age, his company being mustered into service the day he reached his majority. After being in service for a short time in Missouri he became ill, but after regaining his health he again enlisted in Co. G, of the 101st Infantry, and served on the Vicksburg campaign, running the blockade on the gunboat Lafayette. He received an honorable discharge Oct. 30, 1863, after taking ill for the second time.

On June 15, 1865, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary C. Bowyer. To this union were born ten children, four of whom survive: They are William T., of Concord; Jesse M., of Heber Springs, Ark.; James O. and Miss Bertha at home.

Mr. Whitlock was a member of the Masonic fraternity and was ever faithful to the teachings of that order. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, three sons, one daughter, twelve grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. He also leaves the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Eva Gotschall and Mrs. Geo. Bonds, and John Whitlock, of this place, and Geo. Whitlock, of Downing, Mo., besides a host of other relatives and friends.
(July 1919) Thank you Harry Whitlock!!
